Additional DPA guidelines

- CD should reflect specific DPA used as line item.
- No portion of the DPA can be paid to the borrower except for earnest money, application fee and/or loan fees paid outside of closing.* First recommendation is to lower the loan amount. Second recommendation, any remaining funds should be applied as a minimal principal reduction to the first mortgage loan.
- *Tax proration to borrower at closing. We have a subsidy reimbursement worksheet to help ensure DPA is not given as cash back to borrower at closing and lenders receive full reimbursement. This can also be found in Lender Online > Program Documents. We would encourage the subsidy worksheet be utilized to make this determination.
- Personal property must be accounted for in calculation, if FirstHome.
- The MHOA grant is to be used for down payment and closing costs –not as cash back at closing.

QUESTIONS REGARDING MILITARY HOMEOWNERSHIP ASSISTANCE?

How does a borrower use IFA Programs

- 1. Apply for financing with an IFA participating lender
- 2. Lender submits borrower application and eligibility docs
- 3. If MHOA, IFA submits documentation to the VA for service date eligibility approval
- 4. IFA reviews docs for IFA program eligibility
- 5. IFA issues "Conditional Commitment" REQUIRED prior-to-closing to be eligible for reimbursement
- 6. Borrower receives credit for Plus, Loan, and/or Military grant on Closing Disclosure (lender gets reimbursed at time of purchase by Master Servicer)
- 7. Lender must timely submit docs for post-closing review as well as any outstanding conditions.

Underwriting Notice

- IFA reviews for IFA program eligibility only
- IFA DOES NOT perform underwriting
- Lender is responsible for underwriting according to agency guidelines per loan type
- Lender to follow most restrictive guideline (either lender underwriting/compliance, secondary market, or IFA guideline)

Additional Items
