Resources Available for First-Time & Experienced Homebuyers

The Iowa Finance Authority has launched a first-time homebuyer toolkit complete with different resources, such as a guide and a checklist, to educate new and experienced homebuyers.

IFA has created a web page where homebuyers can learn about our programs and sign up to receive the first resource in our toolkit, the homebuyer guide. After signing up, homebuyers will receive a new resource each week to inform them on different aspects of the home buying journey.
